

September 11, 12 & 13

Anahuac, Texas

Gatorfest Road Trip to Anahuac

Saturday September 12th 2 - 5pm

Come on out and display your cars and enjoy Gatorfest 2009 in Anahuac with plenty on eye candy for all.

Historic Fort Anahuac Park located on the mouth of the Trinity River and overlooking Trinity Bay is the festival's scenic site. This truly unique festival combines the alligator, family and good old fashioned Texas two-stepping fun! A celebration of the alligator and its wetlands habitat, this festival has something for everyone. Adult carnival rides, kiddie rides, a petting zoo, assorted vendors and arts and crafts booths offer something for almost everyone. Unique attractions like airboat rides, Trinity River Boat Tours.

Check it out here: <http://www.texasgatorfest.com>

If you have a car or ride with someone the admission will be Free ($10 value)

Please respond if you would like to attend by Friday Sept. 11, 2009

RSVP by email to marvinkelley@windstream.net or by phone to 713-253-8676 or 409-267-6572.

Directions:

Go I-10 east for about 40 miles

Exit onto FM 563 (Exit 810), turn right at STOP/YIELD sign go 6 miles (there is a STOP sign on the way, go straight after stopping)

Turn right onto Belton Lane, (Anahuac National Bank on left) go about a mile or so and 411 Belton Lane will be on the right. (If you get to a RED Caution Light at a STOP Sign you have passed it.

See ya there!!!